

Course Code	English Communications I	L	T	P	C

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course develops foundational skills in reading, writing, listening and speaking for academic and professional contexts. It strengthens grammar, vocabulary and sentence structure while introducing structured writing and effective oral communication. The course prepares students to communicate confidently in academic settings and lays the groundwork for professional and workplace communication

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The course should enable the student to:

1. Demonstrate effective reading comprehension and interpretation skills in academic contexts.
2. Apply grammar and vocabulary accurately in written communication.
3. Produce structured paragraphs and short essays with coherence and clarity.
4. Demonstrate effective listening and speaking skills in academic settings.
5. Apply basic professional communication skills in formal situations.

SYLLABUS

Unit 1: Reading Skills and Academic Interpretation

Intensive Extensive and Critical Reading, Reading Speed and Fluency, Context Clues, Summarizing and Paraphrasing, Text Patterns: Sequence Cause-Effect Compare-Contrast, Inference and Interpretation, Reading Tables Charts and Graphs, Primary and Secondary Sources, Source Evaluation, Responsible Use of Sources

Unit 2: Grammar and Vocabulary Development

Parts of Speech, Sentence Types, Subject-Verb Agreement, Articles and Determiners, Tenses and Modal Verbs, Common Tense Errors, Punctuation, Avoiding Fragments Run-Ons and Comma Splices, Vocabulary Strategies, Synonyms Antonyms Homophones, Commonly Misused Words

Unit 3: Structured Writing and Composition

Writing Process: Prewriting Drafting Revising Editing, Purpose Audience and Tone, Paragraph Structure, Coherence and Cohesion, Transitional Devices, Five-Paragraph Essay, Narrative Descriptive and Expository Writing, Email Writing, Formal and Informal Register, Notices Reports, Note-Making and Note-Taking

Unit 4: Listening and Speaking Skills

Types of Listening, Barriers to Listening, Listening for Main Ideas and Details, Lecture Note-Taking, Pronunciation and Fluency, Public Speaking Basics, Self-Introduction, Impromptu Speaking, Group Discussion Skills

Unit 5: Professional Communication Skills

Communication Process, Verbal and Non-Verbal Communication, Communication Styles, Giving and Receiving Feedback, Empathy and Emotional Intelligence, Professional Etiquette, Resume and Cover Letter Writing, Interview Preparation, Cultural Sensitivity

TEXTBOOKS/REFERENCE BOOKS

TEXTBOOKS

- T1: Communication Skills – Sanjay Kumar & Pushp Lata
- T2: English for Effective Communication – R. P. Bhatnagar & B. T. Cotton

REFERENCE BOOKS

- R1: Academic Writing and Communication in the Global Workplace – Terry Myers Zawacki & Christine Shea
- R2: Technical Communication: Principles and Practice – Meenakshi Raman & Sangeeta Sharma

HANDS-ON ACTIVITY

Activity 1: Read a 600–800 word news article and identify the main idea, supporting arguments, tone and possible bias. Submit a 150–word summary and three inferred ideas not directly stated.

Activity 2: In groups, correct a paragraph with 20+ grammar errors and defend each correction by explaining the applicable grammar rule to the class.

Activity 3: Identify fragments, run-ons and comma splices from a faulty text and reconstruct them into well-structured sentences with proper punctuation.

Activity 4: Rewrite a given short story from a different perspective or tone (e.g., formal to informal) in 250–300 words, ensuring coherence and correct tense usage.

Activity 5: Write a 250–word opinion paragraph on a contemporary topic and exchange with a peer for structured feedback using a coherence and grammar checklist.

Activity 6: Draft a formal email based on a realistic scenario (internship request, complaint, leave application). Exchange emails and provide peer feedback on tone and format.

Activity 7: Draft a formal email based on a realistic scenario (internship request, complaint, leave application). Exchange emails and provide peer feedback on tone and format.

Activity 8: Deliver a 60–90 second self-introduction pitch highlighting strengths and career goals. Classmates provide brief peer feedback on clarity and confidence.

Activity 9: Participate in a moderated group debate with assigned roles (speaker, rebuttal, moderator). Submit a 100-word reflection on communication strategies used.

Activity 10: Prepare a one-page resume and participate in a simulated interview panel (3 interviewers, 1 candidate). Panel submits structured evaluation feedback.